Echoing Green

www.echoinggreen.org

Echoing Green identifies tomorrow's transformational leaders today. Through its Fellowships and other innovative leadership initiatives, Echoing Green spots emerging leaders and invests deeply in their success to accelerate their impact.

Echoing Green supports visionary leaders who are transforming their communities by addressing challenges in focus areas related to economic development, racial and gender equity, environmental sustainability, and more. Since its founding, Echoing Green has provided more than $45 million in funding to 800+ Fellows who have worked in more than 86 countries and 39 U.S. states.

Together, they've established a global community of leaders who have launched Teach For America, City Year, One Acre Fund, SKS Microfinance, Last Mile Health, Hot Bread Kitchen, Public Allies, and hundreds of others. These organizations have leveraged Echoing Green's seed investment to raise more than $5 billion in funding for the public good. Echoing Green unleashes long-lasting change at the intersection of social justice and social innovation by finding the best and the brightest leaders, bringing them together, and launching them on their path to success.

In June 2020, Echoing Green launched its Racial Equity Philanthropic Fund (REPF) and has since raised nearly $75 million. With this fund, Echoing Green furthers a 35-year commitment to bold, strategic investments in racial equity work. Echoing Green's Programs Team is responsible for selecting and supporting the Fellows who are selected as part of the REPF, offering funding and capacity-building for the incredible leaders working on the frontlines of racial equity and justice. Those who work at Echoing Green have a front row seat to the brightest leaders with the most innovative ideas driving social progress across the world. They are fired up to be their partners, their advocates, and their biggest champion. To learn more about their 2022 Fellows and recent accomplishments in their 2022 Annual Report.

Scope and Responsibilities

As an integral member of the Development Team, the Senior Manager of Institutional Giving (Sr. Manager) will work with the Deputy Director, Corporate and Foundation Giving to develop and implement strategies and initiatives to build and support a growing base of financial from institutional supporters. As a portfolio manager, they will work closely with members of the Development Team to build, manage, and cultivate a portfolio to increase engagement, retention and giving levels, in addition to identifying new donors. The Sr. Manager also serves as an ambassador for Echoing Green, a core contributor in reaching organizational goals and objectives.

We value the ability to serve fellows from a broad range of cultural heritages, socioeconomic backgrounds, genders, abilities, and orientations. Therefore, we prioritize applicants who demonstrate they understand the benefits diversity brings to a professional social entrepreneurship community. The successful candidate will be an equity-minded individual committed to collaborating with an internal team and external community partners who are also committed to closing equity gaps.
